

Music Tutor – Jazz & Contemporary Piano

JOB OVERVIEW

The Position

Scotch College has an exciting opportunity for a passionate, suitably experienced, and qualified Music Educator, specialising in Jazz & Contemporary Piano to join our innovative and professional Music Department on a casual basis.

Music is an integral, enjoyable, and rewarding part of life at Scotch College. It enables the boys to express their personal and communal identity and encourages their exploration of the cultural values of individuals and communities. Music Performance at Scotch College has conservatoire level expectations within a broad participation model. All three arms of the Music Faculty work together for the benefit of high musicianship standards.

The College requires Musicians who are experienced teaching boys across all age groups, from Junior School years through to later Senior School years. Music Tutors at Scotch College inspire, guide, engage and motivate students through teaching the study, practice, and performance of music.

About you

Our ideal candidates will have experience teaching young musicians one-on-one and in ensembles, full understanding of and ability to teach musicianship (theory, aural and improvisation) within a jazz context and hold at minimum, a Bachelor of Music majoring in jazz performance.

This role incorporates an ensemble direction component, with responsibility for directing both a Jazz Combo and our ab-initio jazz ensemble Jazz 101.

Benefits

At Scotch our staff enjoy

- Free onsite parking
- Morning tea and lunch provided during term time
- a supportive team environment
- excellent resources
- professional development opportunities

Our employee value proposition also highlights our commitment to our staff through our sense of community and our workplace culture, environment, benefits, and opportunities.

When applying, please stipulate in your cover letter your experience directly related to jazz / contemporary piano.

About Scotch

Scotch College Western Australia is one of Australia's leading schools for boys and is an Independent School of the Uniting Church. The College is located 9kms due west of the City of Perth in the beach side Western suburb of Swanbourne. The School has been at the forefront of education since its foundation in 1897. Throughout its long history, the School has upheld a tradition of excellence that is reflected in a wide and progressive curriculum. At Scotch College, learning is more than academics; it is a total picture, which provides a balance between a student's intellectual, physical, emotional, relational and spiritual needs.

Scotch College is an International Baccalaureate (IB) World School which offers a learning programme based on the Western Australian and Australian Curriculum, and a choice in Years 11 & 12 of three pathways; WACE, VET or IB Diploma. Scotch College is committed to the careers of its staff. The opportunity to work in the International Baccalaureate programme makes Scotch staff employable all around the world. In a joint venture with the tertiary sector, an enhancing classroom practice programme is offered to assist teachers to further develop their classroom skills and teaching repertoire.
